

MERIDIAN UNIVERSITY

Student Admissions – Answered FAQ

Fees, Scholarships & Financial Assistance

1. Why are the fees so high?

Meridian's annual undergraduate tuition ranges from $7,900 to $15,200, while postgraduate tuition ranges from $9,600 to $18,500. The reference also lists facilities and learning resources such as smart classrooms, a central library, innovation labs, sports facilities and residence halls. The document does not provide a detailed fee-comparison or justification for why the fees are considered high. Our placement ratio is 95%.

2. Can I pay the fees in installments instead of paying the full amount at once?

Yes. Fees may be paid annually or split into two semester installments. A late payment fee applies after the published due date each semester.

3. Does Meridian offer scholarships?

Yes. Meridian offers Merit Scholarships of up to 50% tuition waiver for top-scoring incoming students, as well as Sports & Arts Scholarships for students with distinguished sporting or artistic achievement.

4. Does Meridian provide any fee discounts or financial aid?

Meridian provides need-based financial aid for students demonstrating economic need. The reference document does not specify general fee discounts beyond the listed scholarships and aid.

5. Is the application fee mandatory?

A nominal, non-refundable processing fee applies per application. The listed fee is $60 for undergraduate applications and $75 for postgraduate applications.

University Selection & Comparison

6. How does Meridian compare with other universities?

The reference document does not provide a direct university-by-university comparison. It states that Meridian has 5,000+ students, 50+ programs, 150+ faculty, a 95% placement rate, 40,000+ alumni across 70 countries, 60+ international exchange/research partners and over $40M in active research funding.

7. Why should I choose Meridian?

Meridian offers undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral programs across six schools, with an approach combining rigorous academics, industry exposure, research and community engagement. It also provides innovation labs, research opportunities, student clubs, sports facilities and residence halls.

8. Is Meridian accredited and recognized?

Yes. The reference lists the National Board of Accreditation, International Association of Universities, Global Business School Network and Engineering Council Certified among Meridian's accreditations/recognitions.

Course & Program Selection

9. How can I choose the right course for me?

The reference document does not provide a formal course-selection procedure. Students can review the programs offered across Meridian's six schools and consider their academic background and specialization interests.

10. What programs can I consider if I don't have a specific course in mind?

Students can consider programs across Engineering, Computer Science, Business/Management, Arts, Science and Commerce. Undergraduate options include B.Tech, BBA, BCA, B.Com, BA and B.Sc; postgraduate options include MBA, MCA, M.Tech, M.Sc, MA and M.Com.

11. Does Meridian offer a course in Artificial Intelligence?

Yes. Meridian offers a B.Tech in AI & Machine Learning, a four-year program requiring 10+2 with PCM. The School of Computer Science also covers AI.

12. What Computer Science courses does Meridian offer?

The listed programs include B.Tech Computer Science, B.Tech AI & Machine Learning, B.Tech Information Technology, and BCA. At postgraduate level, Meridian offers MCA and M.Tech in various specializations.

13. Can I apply for more than one course?

Yes. Applicants may apply to up to two programs within the same intake cycle.

14. Can I change my course after admission?

The reference document does not specify a course-change policy after admission. The applicant should be directed to the Admissions Office for confirmation.

Eligibility & Admission Requirements

15. Can I apply if my marks are not very high?

Applicants must meet the minimum eligibility requirements for the selected program. For undergraduate programs, this means completion of 10+2 or equivalent with the required subjects. For postgraduate programs, a relevant bachelor's degree with the minimum aggregate marks specified for the program is required. The reference does not state whether exceptions are available for lower marks.

16. Is an entrance exam required for admission?

Admission may consider entrance scores where applicable. The reference does not state that an entrance exam is mandatory for every program.

17. What documents are required for admission?

Required documents include academic transcripts/mark sheets, government-issued photo ID or passport, a recent passport-size photograph, and a Statement of Purpose for postgraduate and doctoral applications. International applicants also need a valid passport copy and, where applicable, an English proficiency score.

18. Can international students apply to Meridian?

Yes. Meridian accepts international students. International applicants should provide a valid passport copy and, where applicable, an English proficiency score.

Application & Admission Process

19. When can I apply for admission?

Meridian accepts applications in Fall and Spring intake cycles, with limited Summer options for select programs. The listed dates include January 15 as the early application deadline and April 30 as the regular application deadline.

20. What can I do if I miss the application deadline?

The reference document does not specify a late-application or deadline-extension policy. Applicants should contact the Admissions Office to check whether an alternative option is available.

21. How long does the admission process take?

Admission decisions are typically released within 4–6 weeks of the application deadline.

22. Can I apply to Meridian if I have already applied to another university?

The reference document does not state that applying to another university prevents an applicant from applying to Meridian. No restriction on this is specified.

23. When will I receive my admission confirmation?

After the application is reviewed, the applicant receives an admission decision and instructions to enroll. Decisions are typically released within 4–6 weeks of the application deadline.

Placements & Career Opportunities24. What is Meridian's placement record?

The University at a Glance section lists a 95% placement rate.

25. What is the average placement package?

The reference document does not provide an average placement package or salary figure.

26. Does Meridian guarantee placement?

The reference document does not state that Meridian guarantees placement. It only reports a 95% placement rate.

Campus, Hostel & Student Facilities27. Does Meridian provide hostel accommodation?

Yes. Meridian provides residence halls with secure, modern housing, common lounges and study rooms. The listed hostel/accommodation fee is $3,200 per year.

28. What facilities are available at Meridian?

Facilities include smart classrooms, a central library with 200,000+ volumes and 24/7 reading halls, innovation labs with prototyping benches and 3D printers, a sports complex, residence halls, cafeteria/food court, 40+ student clubs and annual fests, hackathons and cultural festivals.

29. What safety facilities are available for students?

The reference specifically describes residence halls as secure and modern, with common lounges and study rooms. It does not provide further details about campus safety systems or security services.

30. Can I visit the campus if I live far away?

The reference document does not specify a campus-visit policy or virtual campus tour. Applicants should contact the Admissions Office for current visit arrangements.

Research & Higher Education31. Does Meridian offer research opportunities?

Yes. Meridian has over $40M in active research funding across engineering and sciences, Innovation Labs and incubation facilities, and exchange/research agreements with 60+ partner universities worldwide. Doctoral programs include funded research positions across every school.

32. What are the requirements for a PhD at Meridian?

Admission to the doctoral program requires a relevant master's degree, a research proposal and faculty availability in the chosen research area. Research areas include Engineering & Computing, Business & Economics, Natural Sciences, and Humanities & Social Sciences.

Student Support & Relocation

33. What support does Meridian provide to students moving from another city or country?

The reference confirms that Meridian has residence halls and accepts international students, but it does not specify a detailed relocation, airport, visa, travel or settling-in support service.

Decision-Making & Counselling

34. Can I discuss the admission decision with my parents before applying?

Yes, applicants may take time to discuss their decision with their parents. The reference document does not impose any restriction on discussing an application with family.

35. Can I take some time to decide before applying?

Yes you can take your time before applying. Applicants should consider the published application deadlines when deciding when to apply.

36. Can I get information if I am only researching universities and am not ready to apply?

Yes. The admissions process is intended to support prospective students with information about admissions, courses, fees, scholarships and other university-related questions. The reference does not require immediate application after an enquiry.

37. Can someone from the admissions team call me later?

Yes. The admission-agent conversation flow includes an option to schedule a callback and asks for the best time to contact the student.

38. Can I speak with an admission counsellor?

Yes. Prospective students can engage with the Admissions Office for application-related information. The reference also includes callback scheduling as part of the admissions conversation.

Privacy & Information Sharing

39. Can I get information without providing my phone number?

The reference document does not specify whether a phone number is mandatory for receiving information. The admission-agent script asks for a mobile number as part of the guided conversation, but no separate privacy policy is provided.

40. Can I get information without sharing my marks?

The reference document does not specify whether marks are mandatory for an initial information enquiry. Academic records and mark sheets are required as part of the admission application/document-submission process.

